

THE UNIVERSITY OF SCRANTON
KANIA SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT
KSOM COMMON CURRICULUM

About the Program

The Kania School of Management (KSOM) common curriculum program gets students started on an academic business program, allowing them time and experience before they decide on a specific major. With a carefully chosen class schedule, students stay on track to complete their degree in four years.

At Scranton, we give you plenty of opportunities to discover your real passion.

Outcomes & Opportunities

- For the graduating Class of 2020, more than 75% completed at least one internship during their undergraduate education. Students complete internships at a wide range of companies in locations including Philadelphia, New York City and Washington, D.C. Our KSOM Internship Office helps every step of the way. Students enter the workplace armed with theoretical knowledge, practical skills and experience.
- Just some of the prestigious graduate schools which have admitted recent KSOM graduates: Cornell School of Law, Harvard Business School, New York University, University of California, Berkeley and The University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School of Business.
- You'll find Scranton KSOM graduates working at a wide range of companies and organizations including: Deloitte, Frito Lay, Goldman Sachs, Morgan Stanley, PwC and Vogue.

Our Kania School of Management has ranked among The Princeton Review's "Best Business Schools" for 17 years.
