Adult Undergraduate Application for Admission

Admission to undergraduate programs is based on the applicant’s academic record, life experiences and motivation to continue education. The Office of Admissions operates on a rolling admissions plan which processes applications on a continual basis as received. Candidates are informed of the admissions decision within three weeks after the completion of their files and receipt of supporting credentials.

Applicants are encouraged to meet with an admissions counselor prior to registration and can make an appointment by contacting the Office of Admissions at (570) 941-4839 or transfer@scranton.edu.
