Descriptions of Student Presentations

Residence Life

Residence Life staff members will briefly share what it is like to live on campus, including our residence hall layouts, included amenities and the ways we seek to make your residence hall feel like home at Scranton. In addition, you will have the opportunity to learn about our exciting Residential Learning Community offerings, hear from our resident assistants, and ask questions.

The Arts

Enjoy a tour of the historic Houlihan-McLean Center, home of Performance Music at Scranton, meet the director, Cheryl Boga, and find out more about musical opportunities as both a performer and an audience member. Contacts and links to information regarding University Players theater programs and Hope Horn Gallery visual art exhibits will also be available.

Faith and Service

Student leaders and professional staff from the Office of Campus Ministries discuss faith and service at Scranton, including retreats, worship opportunities, service opportunities locally, across the nation and abroad, and social justice programs. Regardless of your faith tradition, Campus Ministries is committed to journeying with you as you become women and men for and with others.

Division III Athletics

This session, presented by the Associate Athletic Director, will provide information about our Landmark Conference affiliation, NCAA Division III status and an overarching view of our athletics department and its role within the broader University community. Additionally, athletic facility updates and upcoming initiatives will be discussed.

Getting Involved on Campus

With over 80 clubs and organizations on campus, the Scranton community offers something for everyone! Current students will share their experiences with getting involved on campus, followed by a question-and-answer session.

Honors, Research and Study Abroad Programs

Current students will share their insight and personal experience on our honors, study abroad and student research programs. Honors programs include the Special Jesuit Liberal Arts Honors Program, Honors Program and Business Leadership Honors program. Our study abroad program is worldwide and offers unique opportunities for students to immerse themselves in another culture. The Faculty/Student Research program engages students in research activities as part of their academic experience.
