Knowledge of world languages is essential in today’s global society. Our world languages & cultures programs prepare students to become proficient in a language, a literature and a culture other than English and American so that they may lead empowered and productive lives as global citizens.

Outcomes & Opportunities

- Many students study abroad through sponsored, faculty-led trips. To date, our students have studied in 41 countries and six continents. While abroad, many students engage in community service projects and/or complete internships.
- A large percentage of Scranton’s world language and international language-business majors have found employment in areas directly related to their majors.
- Some students now work for the New York State Senate, Raymond Weil Importer (New York), the Dickinson Constant Company (Northern France), Putnam Investments (Boston), AXA (Paris, France), EY LLC and the U.S. Foreign Service.
- Some of our graduates have served in the Jesuit Volunteer Corps at home or abroad, volunteered with the Peace Corps and Catholic Relief Services in Africa and completed Fulbright scholarships in Germany, Morocco and Brazil. Other students are pursuing graduate studies, law school and medical school.

Admissions.scranton.edu/languages
Students who begin language at the Advanced (311) level will take 6 fewer credits in the major and 6 more credits in the cognate or free elective area in either the junior or senior year. In their second year, they will choose advanced language electives.

French majors are required to take FREN 320. Spanish majors will take SPAN 320 and SPAN 321 and three of the following four courses: SPAN 313, SPAN 314, SPAN 330, or SPAN 331.

Recommended GE electives include a second language or history, political science, art history or other courses relevant to world area(s) of interest, such as HIST 125/126 and PS 219/323 for Latin America, HIST 132-133, PS 213 and ARTH 211 for Africa. Consult with your adviser.

The selection of a First Year Seminar is likely to fulfill requirements both for the First Year Seminar and a General Education Requirement. Thus, the First Year Seminar will not add to the total credits for the semester. Talk with your advisor if you have any questions.

An approved 3-credit EP Foundation Course may be substituted for COMM 100 and C/IL 102.

Curriculum grid effective for the 2021-22 academic year in accordance with the undergraduate course catalog.

CONTACT INFORMATION
Yamile Silva, Ph.D., Chair, World Languages and Cultures
Tel: 570.941.7778 · Email: yamile.silva@scranton.edu

1.888.SCRANTON or visit admissions.scranton.edu

1 Students who begin language at the Advanced (311) level will take 6 fewer credits in the major and 6 more credits in the cognate or free elective area in either the junior or senior year. In their second year, they will choose advanced language electives.
2 French majors are required to take FREN 320. Spanish majors will take SPAN 320 and SPAN 321 and three of the following four courses: SPAN 313, SPAN 314, SPAN 330, or SPAN 331.
3 Recommended GE electives include a second language or history, political science, art history or other courses relevant to world area(s) of interest, such as HIST 125/126 and PS 219/323 for Latin America, HIST 132-133, PS 213 and ARTH 211 for Africa. Consult with your adviser.
4 The selection of a First Year Seminar is likely to fulfill requirements both for the First Year Seminar and a General Education Requirement. Thus, the First Year Seminar will not add to the total credits for the semester. Talk with your advisor if you have any questions.
5 An approved 3-credit EP Foundation Course may be substituted for COMM 100 and C/IL 102.